DAYBREAK MAY TELL FATE OF THE OUTLAWS

Detectives Have Been in the Mountains More Than Twenty-Four Hours in Pursuit of Allens.

BY ALEXANDER FORWARD.

Hillsville, Va., March 20.—More than twenty-four hours of continued absence on the part of the detectives who left here last night with a strange messenger gave rise to the expectation that some trace of the Allens had been obtained. One of the leaders of the detective troop stationed here declared at 10:30 o'clock tonight that the posse hardly was expected to return to Hillsville until after midnight, if not at daybreak.

There is a strong belief that dawn to-morrow will tell the story either of a successful capture or futile search. Commanded by Governor.

Governor Mann to-day wrote to Court Clerk Dexter Goad and his daughter, Jezebel, commending them for bravery in the courtroom last Thursday. The Governor expressed the opinion that justice would take its course in Carroll county.

Another Victim May Die.

While the town waited anxiously for news from the absent detectives, Andrew P. Howlett, a bystander, who was shot during the melee last Thursday, writhed painfully to-day in the improvised ward of a crude hotel here. He is failing rapidly, and Hillsville to-morrow may awake to find that a sixth has been added to the list of dead.

Howlett was waiting as a witness in a case that was to have followed that of Floyd Allen. When the shower of bullets began he tried to protect his wife, and was shot in the back. The bullet pierced his body, emerging from his chest.

Juror Columbus Cain, also wounded, is improving and will recover. It still is a matter of wonder that more persons were not killed in Thursday's hail of lead and steel. The tide of the village have counted fully 200 spots where bullets hit. As the shooting was at close range, the bullets pierced their victims clean through. Those killed were fairly fiddled.

Doctor Denies Report.

Dr. Wilkinson denied emphatically to-day the report that he had met Sidney Allen in the mountains and dressed his wounds. He said he had nothing to do with the wounded in the courthouse tragedy. A neighbor with whom Jack Allen talked on his way from town yesterday, related to-day that Allen was somewhat exercised over the excitement that prevailed on his arrival. "I kept my hands in sight all the time," Jack is quoted as saying, "so that no one would think I was going to do any shooting."

Walter S. Tipton, attorney for Floyd Allen on the day of the tragedy, who will be a witness against the Allens when they are brought to trial, filed suit to-day for $250 as fees in defending him. Attachments were levied to cover the amount.

Not the Allen Outlaws.

Winston-Salem, N. C., March 20.—Two men said to answer the descriptions of Fred Allen and Wesley Edwards, members of the Allen clan, who were seen walking toward Pilot Mountain, were arrested at that place to-day. They proved to be two Winston-Salem boys walking to their home. One was the son of Policeman Swain, of Salem.

Suffragette Item.

The man's wife who is tempted to join the suffragettes should be sent to the Bijou, where Hap Ward, the Virginian; Lucy Daly, the Virginian's wife, and Vokes, are showing how the new disease can be cured. Every time Hap comes back to his old home he is greeted in the proper key. This trip the conserv-ant-suffragettes are almost ready to fall on his neck. They are satisfied with the knock-out drops which he is putting into the suffragette tea. But leaving out Hap and Lucy Daly and Vokes, Mr. and Mrs. Barnaby put the kibosh to the new movement; and when Mr. Barnaby, after showing the baby carriage and knitting for many years, gets on a good sound and makes the wife do the shoving and the knitting, it's all off. The shameful way in which Barnaby is treated by his bigger half shows, as Hap remarked, what the world is coming to unless the women give up their foolish idea about voting. So if your wife is thinking to join, give her a ticket to Charlie McKee's little playhouse—give her all the tickets in Charlie's rack—and say to her, "Go, then, faithful spouse, and wake up." She'll wake up all right, and everything will be peaceful around the home.

Miss Daly still has the popular call in Richmond. She is really the whole show. Hap shouldn't get sore over this statement; and if the others did it would be funny. Just to make them all spiteful, it might be set down that the little red-headed girl in the chorus—her freckles nearly hidden behind the rouge—is some girl. And she is getting something she didn't expect. If a man wants to know why he shouldn't marry a suffragette he must see Hap's bunch; and Hap gives the correct dope like a chivalrous Virginian gentleman.

Happy Boys at the Academy.

The gorgeous uniforms, prancing horses, lumbering elephants, and awkward camels shown in the brilliant and colorful "Durbar in Kinemacolor" have accorded the keenest delight to hundreds of children, even those too young to appreciate the magnificence and meaning of the splendid spectacle of the court of the Emperor of India.

Town Has Three Burglaries.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Chillicothe, Mo., March 20.—This town of 6,000 inhabitants has had three burglaries within the past three nights. No very serious loss has resulted, but three stores and two dwellings have been entered, and in each case some small articles have been removed. The police believe that the burglaries are the attempts of an inexperienced local thief.

When You Think

Of the pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity, there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from pain. It establishes regularity, subdues inflammation, heals ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and confidential. Write without fear and without fee to World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y.

If you want a book that tells all about women's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 31 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of wrapping and mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great 300-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to-date edition, in handsome French cloth binding.
